KADE MILLER

BIO

Singer/songwriter Kade Miller brings fresh, bittersweet perspectives with their lyricism, combined with a uniquely mellow guitar. Taking inspiration from artists like Lizzy MzAlpine and Searows, Kade's music is harrowing and introspective, recounting their experiences through grief, love, anger, dissociation, and childhood. Kade is currently in their undergraduate studies, majoring in choral music education at the University of North Texas. They have also been performing their own music live for 3 years now at open mics, concerts, and gigs.

SALAKO MUSIC

BIO

Proud mother of two, a creative being from Dallas, Texas born and raised. A Booker T alumni. Went to school for dance, and singing has always been there in the background. I was always a little too shy to do it. But dance injuries threw me in the water to sing along with my friends from school threatening to drag me on stage! Writing my own music is therapy and a passion of mine that gets me through this life. My life has been a movie and I'm happy to share it with everyone!

ALEXANDRA

BIO

Falling somewhere in the middle of Stevie Nicks, Sheryl Crow, and Maggie Rogers, Alexandra is a Dallas-based, singer/songwriter hailing from the Appalachian hills of Ohio. Her past releases have cemented her ability to infuse heart and soul into indie pop, earning her a tangible buzz in the southern singer/songwriter scene. She's landed opening slots for artists like Abraham Alexander and Angel White, secured regular spins on KXT 91.7, and headlined Girls of DFW. As she gears up to release her debut EP this spring, Alexandra continues to craft music that feels like a long-lost friend—fostering connection, authenticity, and an undeniable intrigue.

REMY REILLY

BIO

21 year-old Remy Reilly is not only a singer and songwriter with a voice mature beyond her age, but she also plays the drums and piano. Remy got her start performing all around DFW. Remy's love for music began early on at the age of 2 with singing. By the time she was just five years old, she was already writing her own music. Inspired by artists like Foster The People, Norah Jones, and The Cure, this vocal powerhouse is a force to be reckoned with and a fresh new face in the Dallas music scene. A songwriter wise beyond her years, Remy's first single tackles mature topics like bullying and self-love.

SCUTTINO

BIO

"Your Favorite Cousin" Scuttino is one of the most exciting new voices in hip-hop. The multifaceted rapper, singer, and songwriter hails from Oak Cliff, a tough inner-city area of Dallas, Texas that's also home to artists such as Yella Beezy, N'Dambi, and The D.O.C. With his love for hip-hop, neo-soul, and R&B, Scuttino has developed a versatile vibe that fuses classic instrumentation with modern production, along with his own mellow style and gift for wordplay. Inspired by a diverse range of artists, from T-Pain to Lil Wayne to hometown hero Erykah Badu, he has crafted a sound that is fresh and innovative, yet rooted in tradition and southern culture.
